

IDAHO

Idaho Statesman

For the week of June 3-9, 2007

'Army Wives'

Catch it at 8 p.m. Sunday
on Lifetime

BEST BETS: NASCAR Racing: Jamie McMurray competes in the Dover 400. 11 a.m. Sunday on Fox

Creature Comforts

Animals say the darndest things. That's the premise of this goofy new series from the folks behind Wallace and Gromit. Ordinary people are interviewed on everyday subjects such as love, health, secrets and lies, and wine. 7 p.m. Monday on CBS

America's Got Talent

It's no "American Idol," but this competition series garnered a decent audience during its first season. It's back for more with a new host, Jerry Springer, replacing Regis Philbin. 8 p.m. Tuesday on NBC

American Inventor

America votes on the winner, and Simon Cowell is involved. But that's all this series, returning for a second season, has in common with "American Idol." It's seeking the next great gadget or gizmo. A panel of judges includes George Foreman. 8 p.m. Wednesday on ABC

Smallville

Lex (Michael Rosenbaum) throws a party for the town to make up for all the damage he did as Zod. It's a costume ball for charity with a special appearance by the band All-American Rejects. Clark and Chloe are a little distracted from the festivities. 7 p.m. Thursday on CW

Bones

Their name isn't Peterson, but the story told in "The Mother and Child in the Bay" will definitely remind you of a certain notorious murder case from a few years back. Brennan and Booth investigate the deaths of a woman and child. 7 p.m. Friday on Fox
